Select the App that is associated with the Zyp Art Gallery. In this case, it is the 'zyp' App.

Hover to the 'Tools' option of the navigation bar located on the top of the page. A dropdown menu will then appear on-hover; select the "Graph API Explorer" option.

You should now see the Graph API Explorer. This platform is used to make API requests to both Facebook & Instagram to retrieve social media data. It is primarily used to generate access tokens to be used in an analytical-production environment and demo various types of API GET requests.

The Access Token Info should now be visible. Notice that the Access Token expires in less than an hour. Ideally, we need an Access Token with a longer lifetime so it can be used to extract social media data multiple times over a given time period. An Access Token with a lifetime of one hour is too short and not sufficient.

This new long-lived access token will expire on November 4, 2022:

Access Token

Debug

The lifetime of the Access Token has extended. It is now a long-lived Access Token with a lifetime of two months. Now, this Access Token is ideal for Zyp Art Gallery's business processes (i.e., social media data extraction). Make sure to save the Access Token in safe location on your local computer or on the organization Google Drive.

Notice that if you debug the Access Token again, the Access Token Info now states that the Access Token expires in two months. Once two months are up, make sure to generate a new long-lived Access Token as expired Access Tokens become invalid and are not usable.
